

CELEBRATING 20 YEARS OF SERVICE

Leadership 100

13TH ANNUAL LEADERSHIP 100 CONFERENCE
THE BREAKERS, PALM BEACH, FLORIDA
FEBRUARY 19-22, 2004

DEAR LEADERSHIP 100 MEMBERS

We will have a dual celebration at our 13th Annual Leadership 100

Conference this year. First, we are celebrating 20 years of service since Leadership 100 was founded as an endowment fund of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. Second, we are celebrating the year when the Olympics come home to Greece, reflected in the design of our brochure. Both celebrations reinforce our perennial commitment to our beloved Orthodox Church and to our Hellenic heritage and ideals.

We will acknowledge those commitments in honoring two outstanding Greek Americans, who will receive the Leadership 100 Award for Excellence at our Grand Banquet, Saturday, February 21 – United States Ambassador to the United Nations John D. Negroponte and famed actress Melina Kanakaredes. They eloquently represent that range of gifts that characterize our Hellenic heritage – statesmanship and drama.

We recognize, too, our inspiration for beginning Leadership 100, His Eminence Archbishop Iakovos, who exemplifies so many of those outstanding qualities of our faith and Hellenic ideals, and those outstanding lay leaders who have served us as Chairmen and Co-Chairman since our founding, Andrew A. Athens, George K. Chimples and George P. Kokalis.

Of course, our Conference would not be complete without the participation of our spiritual leader,

His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios, who will bring us two Bible Studies to enlighten our lives.

For the very first time, we are introducing this year a Youth Program for children, youth and young adults of all ages created and run by able members of the Archdiocese Department of Youth and Young Adult Ministries headed by Fr. Mark A. Leondis, Director, and Deacon Constantine “Bus” Lazarakis, Associate Director.

Finally, the Conference itself is quite special this year because our longtime Leadership 100 members and my Massachusetts friends and neighbors, George and Margo Behrakis of Lowell, are our Host Chairpersons. George has served many years on our Board and in 2002 joined our Executive Committee. We all know George and Margo for their positive attitude and warm and friendly personalities.

So, Madeline and I look forward to many delightful events and to the opportunity to greet each and every one of you at The Breakers in lovely Palm Beach, Florida, as we celebrate 20 years of service, the Olympics, our continued witness and service to our Orthodox Church and to our Hellenic heritage in this great nation.

With love in Christ,

Arthur C. Anton, Chariman

WELCOME TO PALM BEACH

We are very pleased to be your Host Chairpersons for the 13th Annual Leadership 100 Conference. We expect record attendance this year. The Conference has been designed for fun and excitement, as well as meaningful meetings, in the elegant and beautiful surroundings of The Breakers in Palm Beach.

We look forward to enjoying with you lovely days and evenings, wonderful meals and great entertainment.

Leadership 100 conferences are like family gatherings. And this year, with our first-ever youth programs for all ages, it will make it all the more so.

Like each of you, we know we will be enriched by the honorees, stimulating speakers and great programs.

While we love Florida and enjoy Palm Beach, we thought we'd bring you a bit of our home tradition and ask you to join us for the Host Chairpersons' New England Lobster Bake from 7:00 to 11:00 pm on Friday, February 20.

With warm regards,
George & Margo

LEADERSHIP 100 AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

The Leadership 100 Award for Excellence recognizes outstanding

Greek Orthodox and Greek American leaders who have excelled in their vocation and who are committed to the advancement of Orthodoxy and Hellenism in their professions and in their lives. The Award is a commemorative honor that acknowledges the recipients' achievement and gift of leadership.

In 1984, under the guidance of Archbishop Iakovos, Leadership 100 was created as an Endowment Fund of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese through which Greek Orthodox leaders were asked to commit themselves to offer $100,000 each to maintain the life-sustaining ministries of the Church.

Today, Leadership 100, renamed the Archbishop Iakovos Leadership 100 Endowment Fund in recognition of Archbishop Iakovos' vision, is a separately incorporated endowment fund supporting the priority needs of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, but broadly dedicated to advancing the Orthodox faith and Hellenic ideals in America.

Leadership 100 disburses grants ranging from scholarship funds for individuals studying for the priesthood, building an information infrastructure and Internet ministries for the Archdiocese, promoting Home Mission and providing assistance to emergencies such as September 11, earthquakes and medical needs.

The Leadership 100 Executive Committee approves grants after consultation with the Archbishop and after review of grant applications meeting its guidelines. The principal of the Endowment Fund remains permanently restricted and inviolate.

With the initial goal of 100 members soon surpassed, Leadership 100 "raised the bar" and set the Endowment Fund's goal progressively at 300, 500, 600 and now 700 members. The membership includes a broad spectrum of Greek Orthodox leaders, men and women of all ages from every field.

Leadership 100 is a driving force to seed and nurture new programs that promote Orthodoxy and Hellenism into the 21st Century.

BIBLE STUDIES HIS EMINENCE ARCHBISHOP DEMETRIOS

His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios was elected Archbishop of America on August 19, 1999 by the Holy Synod of the Ecumenical Patriarchate convened by His All Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew. He was enthroned at the Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity in New York City on September 18, 1999.

Archbishop Demetrios was born in Thessaloniki, Greece, on February 1, 1928. He was graduated from the University of Athens School of Theology, with distinction, in 1950. He was ordained a deacon in 1960 and a priest in 1964. He was elected Titular Bishop of Vresthena in 1967, as Auxiliary Bishop to the Archbishop of Athens with primary responsibility for theological education.

From 1965 to 1971, Archbishop Demetrios was a graduate student on a scholarship studying New Testament and Christian Origins at Harvard University where he was awarded a Ph.D. with distinction in 1972.

In 1968, he was elected as Metropolitan of Attica and Megaris, but refused the post due to the political conditions in Greece at the time. In 1977, he earned the Th.D. degree from the University of Athens.

The Archbishop served as Distinguished Professor of Biblical Studies and Christian Origins at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology from 1983 to 1993, having taught many of America's Greek Orthodox clergy. He also taught at the Harvard Divinity School as Visiting Professor of New Testament.

In 1993, Archbishop Demetrios returned to Greece to pursue scholarly research and writing full time. He is the author of four major books: Authority and Passion (1987); The Transcendent God of Eugnostos (1991); Christ, the Pre-Existing God (1992); and The Fathers Interpret (1996).

Since his enthronement, His Eminence has become a widely recognized and frequently honored religious leader. He was a constant presence at Ground Zero from the day after the tragedy of September 11, ministering to the needs of all people and offering counsel and advice to President George W. Bush. He also participated in the Inaugural Prayer Service for President Bush. As Chairman of the Standing Conference of Canonical Orthodox Bishops in the Americas, he has become the recognized leader of the 7 million-strong American Orthodox Community.

The year 2003 was marked by two special occasions for His Eminence. As Exarch of the Ecumenical Patriarchate, leading the largest Eparchy of the Ecumenical Throne – the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, he headed an official delegation to meet with His Holiness Pope John Paul II on the Feastday of Ss. Peter and Paul. And in November, he was honored with induction into the Academy of Athens, the premier intellectual institution of Greece “as an abroad-residing member of the Academy of Athens in the area of ethics and political science”, having been unanimously elected a year earlier in recognition of his valuable contributions.

GRAND BANQUET UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR JOHN D. NEGROPONTE

Ambassador John D. Negroponte has served as United States Representative to the United Nations since September 18, 2001. Prior to this appointment he had been Executive Vice President for Global Markets of The McGraw-Hill Companies. A member of the Career Foreign Service from 1969 to 1997, Ambassador Negroponte worked in eight different Foreign Service assignments in Asia, Europe and Latin America, including Ambassador to the Philippines (1993-96), Ambassador to Mexico (1989-93) and Ambassador to Honduras (1981-85).

His distinguished career also includes important positions at the State Department and the White House as Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs (1987-89) and Assistant Secretary of State for Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs (1985-87).

A graduate of Yale University, Ambassador Negroponte is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the American Academy of Diplomacy, as well as a former chairman of the French-American Foundation. He and his wife Diana have five children.

FORUM ON HELLENISM MELINA KANAKAREDES

Star of television, film and theater, Melina Kanakaredes is most familiar to audiences for her portrayal as Dr. Sydney Hansen on the popular television series Providence and a recent performance in Cabaret on Broadway. Her film credits include 15 Minutes with Robert De Niro, Rounders, Dangerous Beauty, and The Long Kiss Goodnight.

In addition to her role in Providence, other television credits include a recurring role in NYPD Blue, and guest-starring roles on The Practice and Oz. She also starred in the drama series New York New and Leaving L.A.

Ms. Kanakaredes received two Emmy nominations for her work on the daytime series The Guiding Light.

In 2002 Ms. Kanakaredes was the spokesperson for Lee National Denim Day to promote Breast Cancer Awareness.

A second-generation Greek American, Ms. Kanakaredes was born and raised in Akron, Ohio and is the third daughter of an insurance salesman and homemaker. She attended Ohio State University to study music, dance and theater and later transferred to Point Park College in Pittsburgh, where she graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in theater.

Ms. Kanakaredes lives with her husband Peter and their two children, in Los Angeles and still spends considerable time in her native Akron.

The hallmark of Leadership 100 has been to define leadership as service and commitment to our Orthodox faith and Hellenic ideals, exemplified by our outstanding Chairmen and Co-Chairman over those 20 years of service.

HONORING FATHER ALEX & PRESBYTERA XANTHI

Leadership 100 pays tribute at this year's conference to Father Alex and Xanthi Karloutsos. As announced earlier this year, Father Alex will be leaving his position as Executive Director of Leadership 100 effective April 1, 2004 to take a position at the Archdiocese.

Father Alex has served as Executive Director over two periods, from 1986 to 1992, and from 1999 to the present. Over all those years, Presbytera Xanthi has served Leadership 100 as a volunteer consultant for special events, taking on a myriad of tasks with a grace and warmth that made Leadership 100 members feel like part of one great family.

In his new role, Father Alex will be assisting in the development of a new endowment for the Archdiocese – FAITH: AN ENDOWMENT FOR ORTHODOXY & HELLENISM; working in public affairs at the highest level; and overseeing the activities of His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios as Exarch of the Ecumenical Patriarchate, including the ministry of the Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate / Order of Saint Andrew.
